The Trasimeno Lake is located in the middle of an area with a strong tourist vocation and between two of the most beautiful Italian Regions: Umbria and Toscana.

Near the lake visitors can find several options that can satisfy their passions, interests and motivations. Predominantly the lake is located in Umbria, a Region which offers cultural tourism, food and wine tourism, religious tourism, sport, wellness, landscapes. Umbria is known as an open-air museum, with several historical cities: its Etruscan, Roman and Medieval origins have left a huge historical and artistic heritage.

The main city is Perugia, that is 15 minutes far away from Trasimeno. A walk through the streets of the centre of Perugia allows the tourist to enjoy beautiful surprises: The Three-coloured walk in the heart of the historical centre is an itinerary that leads to piazzas and streets dedicated to the heroes of the Risorgimento and the fight for independence. From the old Rocca Paolina fortress you will reach Piazza Italia lined with elegant 1800s buildings and then go to Borgo XX Giugno. From Porta San Costanzo walk down via Roma to reach Piazza Garibaldi; then walk along viale Indipendenza, via Caporali and via Bonazzi to reach Piazza della Repubblica. From here, enjoy the classic Perugian pastime of the vasca, or strolling down the main Corso Vannucci, to the Cathedral of San Lorenzo on Piazza IV Novembre and then finish your excursion with a walk down Via dei Priori. The Senses route of echoes and old memories starts at the old Rocca Paolina fortress and, walking along Via Oberdan, you'll reach Piazza Matteotti, where you go down Via Alessi, and then Via della Viola to get to know the real heart of Perugia. Continue down Via Pinturicchio and then get onto the panoramic Via Cesare Battisti. The route continues on Via della Sposa, Via della Cupa, Via Caporali and ends at Piazza della Repubblica.

Walking from water source to fountain is a 5 km walk that follows the underground water system of the city. It starts at the most famous of fountains, Fontana Maggiore on Piazza IV Novembre, and leads to the Fontana di Via Maestà delle Volte, the fountain at the Etruscan Arch and the fountain at Piscinello to end at the fountain of Piazza Italia. The walk to discover the smaller water sources, on the other hand, lets you enjoy gorgeous views of the landscape that surrounds the city.

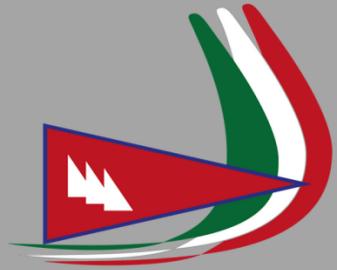

To get to know A new Perugia: the secret rooms, start at the what was once the old Church of Santa Maria della Misericordia, on via Oberdan. During your walk you'll see Piazza San Francesco and the XIV century church of Sant'Ercolano and, finally the Basilica di San Domenico, which houses the funerary garments of Pope Benedict XI.

To enjoy nature in the centre of Perugia, follow the In the natural park of the historical centre route that starts at the Piazza dell'Università and travel back into time with a tour that, with gorgeous views and Etruscan digs, will let you enjoy the historical phases of the city.

ASSISI has been recognized from UNESCO as "World Heritage Sites" in 2000. Just 40 minutes from the lake, this charming historical city draws people from all over the world. Assisi, with its Basilica and the importance of the artists who worked on it, have been a cultural and spiritual inspiration: the diffusion of the artistic and spiritual message of the Franciscan Order has spread across the world, influencing the art of other towns and cities. Assisi represents a unique example of a "city-sanctuary" within its environmental setting, from its Umbro-Roman and medieval origins to the present day. The Basilica of San Francesco is also considered to be an exceptional example of an architectural ensemble which has significantly influenced the development of art and architecture. A visit to Assisi is clearly influenced by the Franciscan heritage. The sacred nature of the place has influenced the planning and architecture of the town, where the celebration of Franciscan ideology has contributed to the creation of monuments that are of outstanding interest for architecture and the visual arts.

TRASIMENO LAKE Located in the northern side of Umbria, at the border with Tuscany, the Trasimeno Lake is a truly natural heaven.

The fourth largest lake in Italy, it owes its name to an ancient legend: the story goes that the fearless prince Trasimeno, son of the wise Etruscan king Tirreno di Lidia, fell desperately in love with the nymph Agilla, and later he married her on the lake's shores.

Nonetheless, the wrath of Gods fell harmfully on the young lovers: today it's still possible to hear in the distance, among the gentle breeze darting over the lake, the moaning of the nymph Agilla, continuously searching for her lover swallowed by waves.

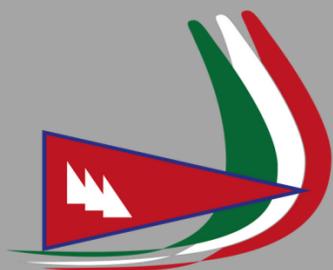

The event will include breathtaking landscapes, old stone villages, typical flavours and water sports for all kinds of fun, but also big events, among ancient traditions, music and great shows. Come and discover the Lord Byron's "silver veil", that across centuries bewitched with its charm several poets, painters and travellers.

The Trasimeno Lake, with its extensive surface and its shallow depth, fits well with the practice of water sports and is becoming increasingly popular as ideal destination for sports such as windsurf, kitesurf, wakeboard, sailing and water skiing.

The lake offers paths suitable for mountain biking: there are no prohibitive climbs or technical parts, but it's 48 kilometres with a 1000 metre altitude difference, making it more suitable for experienced bikers.

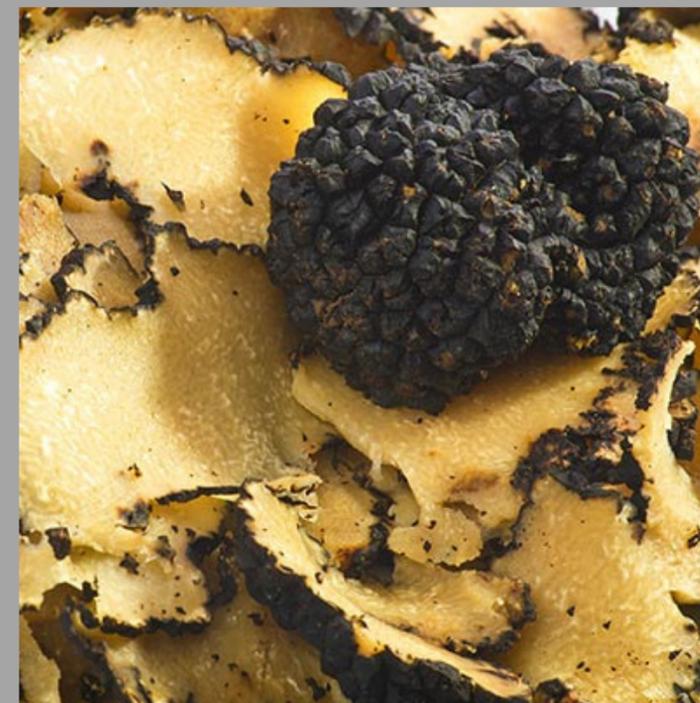

There are walking paths as well: 160 km that crosses the fascinating villages of the area, also including the islands of the lake.

The lake fish has strongly influenced the culinary tradition of the area around the lake. Restaurants and local festivals offer excellent dishes.

Visiting Umbria means to taste a lifestyle, since it is land of flavour where man and nature make all the difference. A very long history of passion and experience goes into every bottle of olive oil and each glass of wine, its main natural products.

Trasimeno hills, the cities of Trevi, Spoleto, Assisi and Spello are known all over the world for the production of excellent extra virgin olive oil, appreciated of its inner quality due to the climate, the manual harvest and the the "cold extraction" process that gives this olive oil is very intense and has a delightfully fruity taste.

Umbria has many DOCG wines: cities like Montefalco and Bevagna (60 minutes from the lake) made Umbria famous for the production of Sagrantino wine, considered a star among the Italian red wines.

On the North Trasimeno extended in Tuscany and the first city that tourists find is Cortona, that is 15 km far away. Cortona is a small charming town in the Valdichiana, or Chiana Valley, in the province of Arezzo in southern Tuscany. The city, enclosed by stone walls dating back to Etruscan and Roman times, sits on the top of a hill about 600 meters (about 1968 feet) above sea level. This dominant position over the valley offers a spectacular view from all over the town of the surrounding valley and even Lake Trasimeno.

It offers squares, small streets, Sanctuaries, a fortress on the top of the hills, museums.

Various small shops on the main streets of Cortona offer local handmade items and gastronomical products. Great red wines are made in the area (we are just a few kilometers from Montepulciano and Montalcino) and all of the wine bars offer a wide selection.

There are many restaurants in the city, most offering traditional local and Tuscan cuisine (the Chianina cattle, one of Italy's oldest, high quality bovine breeds is bred in Valdichiana).

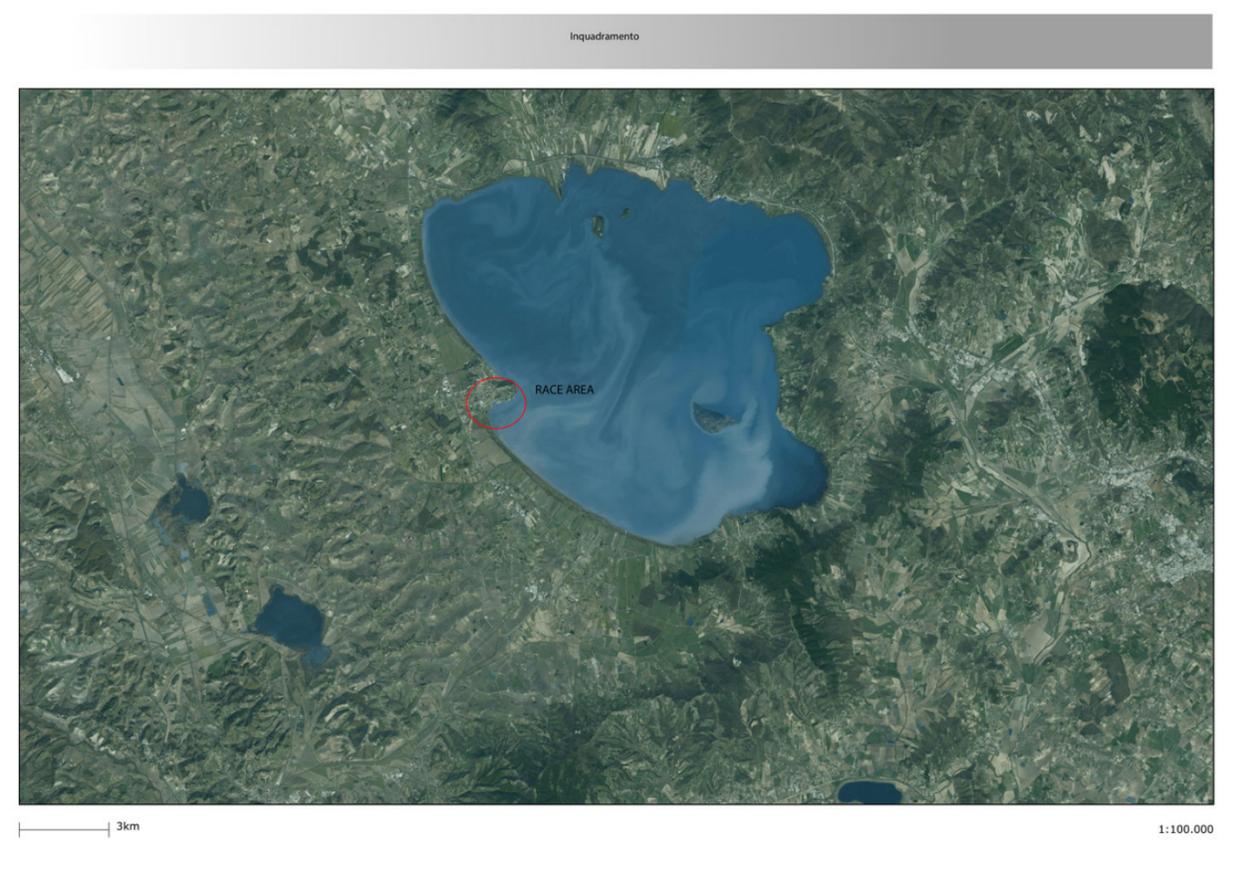

32 km from Cortona tourist can find Montepulciano, one of the Tuscany's prettiest town, a gem of Renaissance and Baroque architecture. Famous for its noble wine called Vino Nobile di Montepulciano.
